HIGHLIGHTS & DESCRIPTION

Hunt for Sika Stag in Ireland

Overview

As a hunter you will experience incredibly beautiful countryside with rugged mountains and huge forests in Co. Kerry, in the south western corner of “the world’s most hospitable country”. It is possible to choose between staying in a charming hotel, at a pub or sleeping in a hunting cottage on a self-catering basis. Hunting takes place in the early morning and evening - that is to say 2 stalking sessions per day for 5 days.

We can offer hunting for sika and wild goat. Ireland is also very well suited as a destination where you can bring the non-hunting part of the family.

Hunting takes place in the early morning and evening - that is to say 2 stalking sessions per day for 5 days. It is around a 5 hour drive from Dublin to the hunting district in Kerry.

ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation during the hunt

Hunters visiting here have a choice of different types of accommodation. They can choose to stay in a charming hotel or pub - possibility for full board - or stay in a self-catering cabin. The cabins are located in a beautiful natural setting, which really does help to bring the right atmosphere for a hunting trip. At the same time the cabins are in easy driving distance of a number of small Irish towns, where you can buy provisions. Also, if you feel like it, it is also possible to enjoy a meal in one of the pubs and restaurants in town. The hunting cabins are fully equipped with all necessary facilities. If you choose to stay in one of these attractive cabins, that are situated as close to the hunting district as possible, you only need to bring along towels, dishes cloths etc. as well as your bed linen, just as you would if you hired a summerhouse in Denmark! For any non-hunters in your party, there is some great sightseeing in the region, including the beautiful historic town of Killarney. Some driving may be involved to reach some of the hunting districts.

PARTNER
Partner - Ireland

We have worked together with are partner in Ireland for many years. Over this time we have seen our hunters achieve great results while hunting sika stags. Our partner provides a really great service! Generally our hunters have been deeply satisfied with the hunt and the hunt organization here.

Our hunt manager has plenty of experience, having worked in the hunting business and arranged hunts for many years. He has arranged shooting for woodcock and other small game for other 30 years and has also been arranging hunting for sika stags for over 20 years. So it must be said he is an experienced gentleman. This hunting organization is known all over Europe and it has a really good reputation.

Our partner has access to some very varied hunting; a combination of mountains, lakes and forests, all of which gives visiting hunters a wide range of possibilities.

We can certainly highly recommend our partner in Ireland!

HUNTING AREA County Kerry

Our partner in Ireland has access to around 20,000 ha. of hunting in Co. Kerry, with a really good population of sika deer.

In the higher parts of the district there is also a good population of wild goats, so if desired, it is possible to combine hunting for sika and goat. The wild goat hunts typically take place on the mountainsides close to rocky caves. All the hunters that have hunted wild goats here have enjoyed a really good hunt.

Sika stags are an incredibly fascinating creature to experience these stags are often referred to as black ghosts. Hunting them is very interesting indeed, during the rut the whistling calls of the stags really does give an extra dimension to the hunting experience.

Although the hunting district is hilly, it is suitable for hunters of all abilities as there are many gentler plateaus. The hunt is a combination of using high-seats and stalking. This district, with its mountains, large lakes and great forests is so beautiful and gives such a wide range of experiences, it can be warmly recommended.

About us

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours Limpopo Travel and Diana Hunting Tours – which today are one and the same company - are built on more than four decades of experience in the hunting travel industry. Diana Hunting tours was founded in Svendborg back in 1974 by the internationally known figure in the hunting tour industry, Jan Krössteig, who today remains shareholder and chairman of the concern.

Over the years the company has grown into the world’s largest hunting travel office, with hunting partners in more than 40 counties and customers from around the world. This has only been possible because of the strength of our customers faith in our company, our partners and the service we provide. We take great pride in the fact that a significant number of our customers are “regulars” you not only travel with us frequently, but also bring with then new customers into our business.

The hunting travel market has never been as chaotic as it is at present. There have always been a mass of smalland medium sized agencies trading on the market, but in recent years the rise of the internet has really opened up the market for direct booking and packages sold by “agents” of more or less transparent character and by agencies based abroad.

A large number of hunters have had their fingers burnt booking “cheap” packages, which rarely proceed as promised, Generally it is only when things go wrong that the unfortunate hunter who bought the tour first realises what the difference between a good Danish travel agency - with all the security that entails -and a questionable foreign seller, really is.

What we offer our customers is a rather unique level of security. Our experienced staff really know our destinations and can provide highly qualified advice tailored to the customer’s individual requirements. If you book your hunting tour through us you also have a guarantee against the unlikely event of bankruptcy through the Danish Travel Guarantee Fund. Our long standing membership of the Danish Travel Agency Association is also a guarantee for professional service throughout all the proceedings that a hunting tour entails - also in the event of something not going quite as planned. As one of our customers you can expect around the clock support, via our emergency hotline, in the event of anything at all going wrong.
